HUMANE SOCIETY OF MACOMB DONOR PRIVACY POLICY

The United States and the State of Michigan tax laws require the Humane Society of Macomb to keep contact information and contribution level of donors on file. HSM collects personal information from donors that includes: amount donated, address, and e-mail address.

HSM will never publish, sell, trade, rent or share names, e-mail or mailing addresses of our donors, nor will we send donor mailing on behalf of other organizations unless a donor has given us express permission to do so.

We give donors the option to have their name publicly associated with their donation however donors do have the option to choose the "anonymous" field when donating.

HSM will occasionally contact donors regarding program updates and services, and upcoming events. Donors not interested in being contacted may opt out of these contacts by notifying the Humane Society of Macomb.
